Discover the weather around the world!

When it's summer in the northern hemisphere, it's winter in the southern hemisphere. And when it's autumn in the northern hemisphere, it's spring in the southern hemisphere.

In England, it's summer. It's often warm and sunny, but it can be a bit cold at night. People go to the beach, but the sea in England is always cold.

In the Sahara Desert in Africa, it's summer too. The days are always very hot in the Sahara. It can be 40°C, but at night, it can be about 0°C.

In the middle of the tropical rainforest in Brazil, it's always warm or hot, and it's often wet. It's never cold – even in winter!

In Argentina, it's winter. In the southern part of Argentina, it's very cold. It can be freezing and snowy there in winter.

In Antarctica, it's snowy and freezing! At the South Pole, it can be -12°C in the day, and -80°C at night!
