

1 Przeczytaj e-mail. Które zwierzęta najchętniej oglądasz w zoo? Czy uważasz, że zoo to dobre miejsce, żeby chronić zagrożone gatunki zwierząt?

Hi Sarah,

I've got some information about two zoos. I hope we'll use it during our next science lesson.

Singapore Zoo

This zoo is very natural. It is situated in a rainforest as part of Wildlife Reserves Singapore.

It is unusual because there are no fences and the animals can move around very close to the visitors. People see the most dangerous animals through glass walls but other animals walk around freely. The zoo is huge, there are about 2,400 animals of over 300 species.

You can have breakfast with orang-utans and watch white tigers, brown lemurs and sun bears there. Did you know sun bears are the smallest bears in the world? 😊

San Diego Zoo

This is probably the most modern zoo in the world. It has got so many attractions that it's impossible to see them in one day. There are more than 3,500 animals representing about 650 species.

The area of the zoo is divided into smaller parts for particular kinds of animals, for example animals from Africa, Australia or Asia. To see everything or almost everything, you can go for a guided tour by zoo bus or you can go for a Skyfari and watch the animals and landscapes from a gondola above the zoo.

Interesting, isn't it?

See you at school,

Jessica
