Hi Susan,
I'm going to Kenya, at last!
I've read so many books about Kenya and seen so many pictures that I feel like I've been there before!
I've started packing my bag already and I've bought some of the necessary things, but I still haven't found a good mug to take with me. Any idea where I can buy one?
I'm looking forward to being an explorer. We are going to stay in a wildlife park for a couple of days. I can't wait to see all the wild animals: lions, rhinos and elephants. But that's not all! We're going on a night safari! I've got a good feeling about this.
Kenya, here we come!
Lots of love,
Helen

- Has Helen been to Kenya before?
- What is Helen looking for?
- Where is she going to stay?
- What does Helen really want to see in Kenya?
- Is Helen looking forward to going on a night safari?
