

1 Wspinając się po drabinie, przeczytaj wskazówki i wpisz odpowiednie słowa.

	r	a	i	n
7	___	___	___	___
6	___	___	___	___
5	___	___	___	___
4	___	___	___	___
3	___	___	___	___
2	___	___	___	___
1	___	___	___	___
	s	n	o	w

- The past form of run. Change one letter.
 An animal like a large mouse. Rah is one ☺ Change one letter.
 The past form of sit. Change one letter.
 You wear it on your head. Change one letter.
 Very warm. Change one letter.
 ... are you? Take away one letter.
 It can be laser or street. Change one letter.

2 Uzupełnij zdania.

- The children were really ___ c ___ e ___ because it was _____ ☁.
- I was feeling d ___ ___ because it was _____ ☁ all the time and I couldn't go out to play football.
- It's _____ 🌡️⁻¹⁰, and it's dark so I want to go to bed early because I'm really ___ I ___ ___.
- Mum was feeling really ___ r ___ u ___ when she was driving during the _____ ☁ night.
- It was _____ ☀ and _____, ☀ but I was feeling ___ ___ k and had stomach ache, so I stayed at home.

3 Z tekstu usunięto trzy zdania (A-C). Wstaw je w odpowiednie miejsca (1-3). Następnie podpisz ilustracje zaznaczonymi wyrazami.

- A Some people thought that it came from leaves or spiders.
B At first, only the Chinese kings and queens wore silk clothes.
C Then, a really strange thing happened.

One of the ancient Chinese inventions is silk. This material is made by silkworms and it's very soft but also strong and expensive.

In China, there is a legend that when the 14-year-old Queen Leizu was sitting under a mulberry tree in her palace garden and drinking tea, a cocoon fell from the tree into her drink. ¹☐ In the hot drink, the cocoon turned into a white thread. Leizu pulled it out from her tea and started to twist it around her finger. She then had the idea of using the thread to make silk fabric. ²☐ Such clothes were so expensive that only the monarchs had enough money to buy them.

For hundreds of years, Western countries knew very little about silk. ³☐ The Chinese kept the secret for more than 2,000 years.

- 1 _____ 2 _____ 3 _____ 4 _____ 5 _____ 6 _____

4 Wykorzystując poniższe nagłówki artykułów z gazet napisz pełne zdania o wydarzeniach poprzedniego dnia.

Teenager finds 200zł note run in park. A teenager found a 200zł note when he/she was running in the park.

- Two tourists fall from hill climbing in foggy weather. _____
- Shopping mother forgets her baby. _____
- President meets workers visit factory. _____
- The Chinese discover new medicine mixing green tea with salt. _____
- Sick teacher leaves students taking exam. _____